

SALE OF BOOKS AND SUPPLIES TO STUDENTS:
COPYRIGHTS AND ROYALTIES

No member of the Northeast Community College staff shall have any financial interest in, or receive, any compensation from the sale of books, pamphlets, other educational material, or supplies used by students at the College, except royalties on books or other educational material from publishing houses of standing, when copyright has been secured or when otherwise provided by agreement with the College for College-sponsored education materials. Except as to those works which are College-sponsored "made for hire" educational materials, the College shall claim no right of ownership of such copyright or such royalties. It shall be the policy of the College to encourage publication of textbooks and other educational materials, if there is no exploitation of College students resulting therefrom.