Learning Express is available to any student, faculty or staff member who has completed a library registration form. If you are a library "user" you can obtain a Learning Express registration (bar code) number by asking the ever-helpful library lady at the main desk.

Why not stop by the library to get your own registration number and see if you have what it takes to pass the ACT or the math and vocabulary tests? Once you have your registration number look for the link to Learning Express Library on the library's website under "24/7 Online Library." Follow these steps once you're at the Learning Express website:

1. Click on New User
2. Enter user name (your barcode number)
3. At the next screen click on Northeast Community College then click update
4. Click on Continue
5. Click on any test you'd like to take and take any test as many times as you'd like.
