

Speech

The speech program is a two-year liberal arts program with special emphasis on communication. Credits earned in the program may be transferred to a four-year college towards a bachelor's degree in speech for careers in speech communication, broadcasting, teaching, business, public relations, and other professions where communication skills are essential.

Suggested Program of Study for Associate of Arts Degree (2 years)

Freshman Year
-----------------------------

FIRST SEMESTER
Course	Credits
Oral Communication* .....	3
SPCH 1600 Introduction to Forensic Activities .....	3
ENGL 1010 English Composition I .....	3
Natural Science* .....	4-5
History* .....	3
	16-17

SECOND SEMESTER
Course	Credits
SPCH 1110 Public Speaking .....	3
SPCH 1710 Advanced Forensics Activities I .....	1
HPER 1500 Lifetime Wellness .....	2
HPER Basic Sports Series .....	1
Fine/Performing Arts* .....	3
Mathematics* .....	3-5
Elective .....	3
	16-18

Sophomore Year
------------------------------

FIRST SEMESTER
Course	Credits
SPCH 1720 Advanced Forensic Activities II .....	1
SPCH 2050 Oral Interpretations .....	3
SOCI 2150 Issues of Unity and Diversity .....	3
Behavioral Science* .....	3
English/Literature* .....	3
Elective .....	3
	16

SECOND SEMESTER
Course	Credits
SPCH 1730 Advanced Forensic Activities III .....	1
SPCH 1100 Small Group Communication .....	3
BRDC 1240 Voice and Diction .....	3
Social Science* .....	3
Electives .....	6
	16

*See general education requirements.

**Recommended electives: BRDC 1100 Introduction to Broadcasting, SPCH 1900 Communication Seminar, and SPCH 2900 Advanced Communication Seminar. Recommended electives depend on desired professional goal and/or requirements of transfer institution.